“ In the Book of Solomon it says "There is a time to live, and a time to die". God has called Hugo to his reward. It is a sad time for us, but a glorious time for him. Hugo was always a gentleman in both senses of the word. He was a master mechanic. If he could not repair it, no one could. He and his wife Aileen were wonderful neighbours on Albert Street. We shall remember him until we meet again. May God bless his family with His Peace. SHALOM Robert and Ursula Paxton, Manitoulin Island.
