“ Ina,

I remember on our wedding day you said you couldn't have asked for a better daughter-in-law if you had picked me yourself.

For 47 years I have loved, laughed and cried with your son by my side.

I thank you for him.

Now you are reunited with your beloved husband Keith ❤️

“ I have many good memories of Aunt Ina - family Christmas at her house; as a child going with my Dad to get strawberry plants from her garden; her amaryllis bulbs; her delivering tomato plants in her little red Caliber hoping she wouldn't get lost on the way to our house; her quilts; visiting with her at home and in Sydenham residence. I think of her often.
Love and prayers for all my cousins.

“ Mom,

I really miss all those late-night phone calls, many lasting into the wee hours. We laughed a lot and shared memories.

I'll always treasure the memory of you and I dancing together.

Gary and I loved you very much and shared a lot of hugs with you.

Your life was very difficult at times, but now your burdens are lifted and you're on a peaceful journey to a better place.

We'll meet again, Mom - and maybe take in a ball game!

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Ina was a wonderful woman, some of my best childhood memories weren't spent out at her place. The fireworks were the best and I always looked forward to what new ornament was for Christmas that year. They still make it to our trees each year.
Sending all my love to you Maxine and Tony and may she Rest In Peace
