My Dad Wally Kilbride worked with Scubby at Imperial Oil many years ago. Sometimes after work, they would end up at our place for a couple of "pops" and one of Moms breakfasts. I still remember George had the best laugh and great sense of humour. My condolences to his family.

“ Scub was a pillar of our community. No matter what you needed, or who needed it he would be there ready to help. As a Past President of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, he and his family kept this organization going in Port Lambton, and now the Sacred Heart Food Bank continue to benefit from his tireless work. Scub was the first chairman of our Gala Weekend which is now in their 51st year. The children in the area are playing ball because of his foresight. This alone shows of the kind of person Scub was, a visionary, kind, caring and forgiving person. Rest in peace my friend, you will be missed by many.
