

J Robin Southgate

May 2, 2023

 Update, Family and friends are invited to a Celebration of Life for Robin on Monday, July 31, 2023. Burial will be held at 10:30am at Riverview cemetery followed by reception at the Cavanagh Reception Centre. Please RSVP to Robin's Daughter Allison before Monday, July 24, 2023 if attending at fellnerallison@gmail.com ***

J Robin Southgate, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, May 2, 2023, at the age of 88.

He will be remembered lovingly by his children Melody Southgate, Christopher (Alison) Southgate, Allison (Kurt) Fellner, Greg (Shannon) Southgate; their late mother Patricia; Brittany Southgate, McKenzie 'Mak' Southgate, and their mother Abigail. Cherished Grandad of Victoria (James), Carolyn (Scott), Laine, Julia, Claire, Emily, Daniella, and great grandson, Benjamin. Robin will now be reunited with his parents, Jack and Muriel Southgate, as well as his siblings Sheila, Doug (Annaliese), and Shirley (Geoff). He is survived by his dear brother Terry (Nadine) of Mexico.

Robin was a successful investment advisor for 56 years, retiring at the age of 78, in 2013. He lived by the philosophy of giving back to the community, in gratitude for all the support he received: By serving on the Wallaceburg Town Council (1970s), being a dedicated Rotarian (1961-2021), and participating with the Scouts Canada organization (1960s-70s), he was responsible for the concept of installing sidewalks throughout Wallaceburg, the building of a seniors' residence and the high school pool, and the purchase of a camp property for the Scouts. When the Holiday Inn declared bankruptcy, Robin assembled a group of ten local businessmen, including himself, to purchase the hotel and reopen it as the Oaks Inn. He participated in WAMBO 30 years consecutively, showing the same classic boat, his beloved Shepherd 'Just Relaxing'. Robin was a faithful member of St. James Anglican Church.

While his boats were his first love, his family came a close second. Life was for living, and true to this, his life was packed with adventure. He travelled extensively and was enthralled with history, but he had a particular affinity for Ireland, England, and Cuba.

Robin's family would like to express their gratitude to all the Care Team on 4E at Riverview Gardens for the care and support given to their father over the last few years. Cremation Arrangements have been entrusted to the Haycock-Cavanagh Funeral Home, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg, 519-627-3231. Robin will be laid to rest at Riverview Cemetery with a Celebration of Life to take place later this summer. If you wish to give back to the community as Robin so often did, please consider donations to Rotary International or St. James Anglican Church (Wallaceburg). Cherished stories and tributes may be left for the family at www.CavanaghFuneralHome.ca

“ My condolences to Allison and Kurt, Abigail and children/grandchildren and all family members. Robin was always so kind and generous to me, and did so much for his community. I have good memories of outings on the boat and social gatherings in the back yard of his home.
Hugs and prayers to everyone. Sincerely, Mary Anne McCallum

“ Remember meeting Robin for the first time at Wambo and finding out we were distant cousins. He always went by my place on Lafontaine with his beautiful boat Just Relaxing. Always waved. I have missed that since he moved out of his house. My condolences to his family. He was a great person and will be greatly missed

“ I was one of many truly fortunate people that shared time, life and experiences with Robin. Robin was a person who gave and put more into any relationship or cause than he received. His energy and zeal in the interest of others was rare. He was always positive in good or tough times, and he never stopped trying to do his best. He was very respected in the investment industry and very few reach the levels that Robin did. Robin helped me in my career and in turn my family. Our sincere condolences to all of his family and I want them to know that I am so respectful and blessed that I knew Robin.

“Our sincere condolences to the Southgate family. Robin was a good, true friend to my father and our family for years. We will cherish the memories of good times shared together, of the many outings on his wooden boats and of his good spirit and 'joie de vivre'. May he continue to sail in his next life and may his spirit continue to live within you. Our thoughts are with you during this difficult period.”

My sincere condolences to Robin's family. I worked for Robin at the Oaks Inn for many years and remember well the great times we had on our staff outings on his boat. So many many laughs and such great times with he and Pat and watching the kids grow. Thinking of all of you at this sad time.
