“ Our sincere sympathy to Joan on the death of Jack. They were such a great couple with their many shared experiences and great times together. We spoke with Jack just ahead of Joan going to Fairfield. He was most upset that they could not be together, so sorry. He was a great man a gentleman. TOM AND Liz Morrison

“ Keeping Joan close in my thoughts and prayers. Jack and Joan were a wonderful part of my childhood growing up. They were incredibly close friends of my parents, Nancy and Keith Southern. Such kind people. We have some wonderful pictures of Jack and my dad in kilts out at the curling club during a Bonspiel. Such a fun and loving couple. Sending Joan lots of love and holding her close. - Susan Southern-Braiden.

We are all missing Jack's wonderful tenor voice in the "Silver Threads." Jack and Joan were always ready to tell me stories about their years of marriage...a truly memorable union. Sending love and prayers to you Joan. Betty
