“ Jackie Welsh was one of the kindest, caring, and genuine Christian people, I have ever have has the privilege of knowing. I was so blessed as a young person to have Frank, Jackie, Alan, and Janet as true friends growing up. Jackie has a faith in the Lord, that absolutely shone through, and affected everything that she did or said.

Jackie, the Lord has called you home. You are at peace now, and rejoicing with your family and all those you knew who were called home before you.

I will never forget your beautiful voice, smile, and loving way, until one day when I have a chance to meet you again.

Yours truly,

Steve
