Rosemarie so sorry of James passing, I have just found out when going through the website. I was locked down in Wales, UK, with no way out, when many changes happened, this being one. I am so sorry to hear this, please know that I appreciated Jim for his humour, his compassion for life, his friendship that was non-judgmental, his voluminous laughter you always knew was from his heart and he was true to his word and actions!! Anyone who has known Jim either years back or right thru his life would always know that he was a friend for life, he was just that type of person. Blessings to you and your family and may the many memories together keep you in happiness for the rest of your lives. He was a Blessing to ALL who knew him. Thanks for sharing him with others.

“ Mike and I look forward to coming today to share this time to honour Jim with the opportunity to also express our sadness to have to do so, to all of you.

He loved his family fiercely , and my brother Mark steadfastly, as they both fought this same battle , valiantly.

To say we will miss you is true cousin Jim , but inadequate.

You can never be replaced. Nor could you be!

You lived so large and shared so fully of yourself with others , we will always be grateful to have known you.

May you enjoy the well deserved reward you shall receive for a job well done.

Thanks for the memories,

condolences to Jim’s family. There was never a time when we ran into Jim that he didn’t make us chuckle. Although there is pain in his absence, there is comfort in knowing that he is in the presence of
