Through the time of grieve and tears and remembering so many memories know that Jan is now at peace in heaven. Though things will never be the same, we open ourselves to God and let the reassurance of His love start to heal our lonely hearts. It is with God's gift of time we gain courage to go on from those loved-ones around us and the strength from God. There are not words to express my sorrow for not being able to be with the Johnstons' yesterday or today.....but know the lite blue candle is my loving tribute to her, that reflects Jan's soul across "her" river - to the heavens into the loving arms of God. With thanks in being part of Jan's life journey - Marlene and Bill - who I am sure has met her, holding out his hand to guide her onward.

“ Our deepest sympathy and love, Tom, Todd, Tim, Heidi and Tobin. Janice was perhaps one of the sweetest and kindest people we have ever known. To know her, was to love her, and it was an honor to have known her for many, many years. She was an angel on Earth and there is not doubt she is with the Heavenly angels now. The empty space that she left on this earth is large, but her spirit lives on. Until we meet again...

When we were little she always had time to watch our 'Broadway productions' in the living room on the 9th concession. She had an abundance of patience and a positive outlook no matter what life dealt her. She had the best chocolate brownies in Lambton county!!
