“ 8.25.14 I just found out about this. My heart goes out to Jana and her family during this very painful time. Jana I want you to know you are in my prayers and thoughts. Jason, I'm glad I got to meet you when you were playing hockey and came to Pennsylvania to play a game and stayed at my house overnight. My love, respect and deepest sorrow goes out to Jason's family.

“ To the White Family: Our deepest sympathy and warm regards from us and our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. We've known hard times and temporary losses, but can only imagine the void you are feeling right now. Jason always had a smile and a wave for us when we would see him anywhere. His respect for Lisa and Trinity as they walked down Chief's road was obvious as he slowed down to ensure their safety, with a very friendly wave and a smile! Toni enjoyed his tenacity and God given talent on the ice! We loved seeing his grandpa Jack at Jason's games here and there and praising Jesus with him, and we know that Jesus loves Jason very much and Jason has seen his glory in God's Eternal Kingdom! You will ever be in our prayers and we love you with the love of Jesus Christ!! Toni and Lisa Sands

“ I only had the opportunity to work with Jason briefly over this past two months. I remember how excited he was to hope out of his truck with a shovel in hand to check the dirt spoils after they just installed a transmission pole. Much to his chagrin, the ground was frozen solid already due to the -20 temps and horrible winds. He was a trooper! My condolences to Jason's family. He will be remembered today and for a long time to come!

“ I did not have the pleasure of knowing Jason, but my youngest son went to WDSS with him and shared a few classes. As a mom of a son the same age, my heart aches for your family and the sorrow you feel right now. Kevin shared some memories with me about Jason. He recalls having him in his grade 10 gym class. All of them were very athletic and competitive. During a game of floor hockey Kevin recalls having the misfortune of playing against Jason. He was in net and remembers what a wicked shot Jason had. You just winced when he took a shot on you and you came out of class with red marks on your chest from his powerful shots. But they all had so much fun, with great memories. Be assured he was liked by many. Rest in peace Jason. Thoughts and prayers are with the White family for the days to come.
Sincerely,

“ Jason... We will always remember his smile, his kind heart and thoughtfulness. What comes to mind most was the way he enjoyed life to the fullest. Even as a young boy no matter if he was swimming, or whatever activity he was playing, he gave it his best and thoroughly enjoyed himself. We will miss him dearly even though we didnt see him often after we moved, but when we did he was the same "Jase". Always smiling. Our kids all loved him like a brother and we loved him like he was our nephew. He will always have a special place in our hearts. Lovingly, Ann, Jeff and Family.
