

Jayden Taylor

March 2, 2026

Jayden Robert Victor Taylor, you left us so suddenly on Monday, March 2, 2026 at the age of 31. It is utterly unbelievable to know that you will no longer tip-toe on this earth, leaving a blazing trail of utter chaos in your path.

Jayden, always remember that you will be forever loved by mom and dad, Tanya (Mark) Beselaere and Paul Taylor and by your grandma Marge Genyn and Gary and Linda Beselaere. Make sure to say hi up there to your papa Jerry Genyn, Joe and Lenora Taylor and your uncle Rob Genyn.

To our pain in the ass, sarcastic brother, your unhinged comic responses will forever live on in our memories. Love your siblings Jalissa (Taylor), Jace (Megan), Cody (Ashley) and Ashley (Dustin).

What can we say to our sports loving nephew; we know that you will be up there watching over every game you can, especially the Detroit Red Wings and Pittsburgh Steelers with a little Megadeth playing in the background. You will be forever cherished by your aunts and uncles; Penny (Brad) Blue, Larry (Cathy) Genyn, Jeff (Lisa) Genyn, Deb (Charlie) Krohn and Wendy (Jerry) Miller as well as by your many cousins and all your dearest friends from over the years.

We will be saying our reluctant goodbyes privately to you at the Haycock-Cavanagh Funeral Home, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg (519-627-3231). If anyone wishes to make a donation in your honour Jayden, we have asked them to support the love you had for your cat Mabel by giving to the PAWR or to the Chatham-Kent Hospice Foundation. ~From your family with all the love in the world.

“Moving on is a simple thing, what it leaves behind is hard.” Dave Mustaine (Megadeath)

“ I really enjoyed working with Jayden at the Beer Store! He was funny, smart, always had a twinkle in his eye, and was a walking sports encyclopedia! We often had after-work chats at Chuck's or the Goat. So sad to hear that he has passed. A great kid!

“ Jayden’s family: our family’s heart joins with yours. The depth of losing Jayden’s presence in your lives is not fathomable. We will cherish the time he spent with our family as a teenager. His familiar greeting; whenever, we met after he became a man. He was always kind and polite; willing to share a minute of his time. We will remember Jayden’s uniqueness fondly and he will always hold a special spot in our hearts. So tearfully sorry you had to say goodbye to such a special part of your family. “ Sincerest condolences to Tanya & Mark, the Genyn & Beselaere families, Paul Taylor and family, all Jaydens many friends. Jaydo you always had a special place in my heart from when you were a little boy to a young man. I will miss our back & forth sports banter and even our serious private chats when life seemed to weigh you down or when you questioned our world. You are an amazing young man and I'm sure heaven welcomed you with open arms, as you knew Jesus as your savior. Rest in Peace and I'll see you again, one day in paradise.
Love ya

“ Jayden was such a light on this earth and one of the kindest people I've had the pleasure of meeting during our time at WDSS.

I'll never forget getting in trouble at Petro Canada because you kept buying all of our scratch tickets and hanging out with us, instead of letting us work. I'll miss bumping in to you at the Wallaceburg beer store.

You'll be missed, Iron Jayden.

“ I knew Jayd basically all my life. We met before we even knew how to tie our shoes or count to 10. We went through the major milestones together from the short lived WT Lang kinder garten class, then A A Wright all the way up until we graduated grade 12 at WDSS. Countless nights listening to music, talking sports, playing games, the nights hanging out in Brenden's shed just shooting pool, blaring music and talking about life will always be some of the best memories I have ever made and will cherish for the rest of my life. I will never forget you Jayden for as long as i live and hope you are resting easy my friend with that goofy smile on your face and Megadeth on the queue. Love you man.

“ I met Jaydo about a month ago, we clicked immediately his wild sense of humour meshed with mine in a matter of minutes and I was proud to call him a friend for the short time I knew him, he would come by and hangout with me Cyrus and Zack and we would both terrorize them all night laughing at each others jokes and annoying them both for our own entertainment, I'll miss you man I wish we got to be friends for longer then we did, rest easy buddy
