“ Condolences to the family of Jean. I meet Jean through the bowling league in 2014. Last year I had the pleasure of being on her team. Jean was such a fun loving sweet wonderful woman. She was a great bowler! Sure out did me, lol. Although I hadn't known her long I will cherish our friendship. She will be sadly missed.

“ On behalf of the Moynihan family, we offer our sincere condolences on her passing. Dad remembers Jean from Dean's Dry Good's and Martin's Travel. We also remember Jean from Oaks Retirement Village. “ *To Peggy and Tom,
I will always remember working at Dean's Dry Goods, my first real job. Your Mom was the best person with which to work and to show me how to treat customers with the most respect. Jean encouraged my love of fabric and sewing. She was a great inspiration.
My condolences to you.
