“ I always remember Jean and Mack who were the best of friends and coworkers in the ER at SDH. We would have a few laughs and coffee when things quieten down

They were great nurses and care givers under some very trying times and circumstances.

My sincere condolences to her entire family

To the Munday family: So sorry for your loss. Jean was kind and very quiet. She always helped me with the altar servers as they prepared for Mass at Our Lady Help of Christians church. Her thoughtfulness was always appreciated.

“ Jean was in the hospital with our daughter one time years ago but she was originally a customer at Jackson's Pharmacy when I worked there. She was a quiet kind of shy lady but always made a point to come and say hi. She was a sweet lady. Condolences to the family.
