“ Jen,

Haven't seen you in 15 years old friend. We used to hang out together with Jolene and Rich when we lived in Bona vista Crescent, Wallaceburg. Sorry to hear you had passed. We had some great memories together when we were young. You had a heart of gold. God bless you!

Your friend always, Pete Kralj

“ I remember Jenn, on the dance floor with her Mom at my cousin Terry Armstrong's 60th party. She lit up the room, and didn't let her chair hold her back from enjoying the music with us! A beautiful soul!

“ Dear Friend,
I have so many wonderful memories of us throughout the years. We were all so lucky to have an Angel such as you in our lives, you are at peace now. Give your Mom a hug for me and keep the party alive until I get there.
Xoxo

“ A memory of Jen that has stayed with me all these years was when she was around 4 years old. I had gone to Wallaceburg to visit and since a new MacDonald's had just opened I offered to take her there for lunch. We arrived in the parking lot and got out of the car, heading for the restaurant. Jen had braces on her little legs and was walking along in her braces, which looked very uncomfortable. I asked if I could carry her in and she said, in a very mater-of-fact tone of determination "No thanks you, I can do it myself." It brought tears to my eyes and left an indelible memory of that courageous little girl doing what was to become a lifetime of very difficult, even painful activities "on her own". She was indeed a trouper and never looked for sympathy or special consideration. How I loved her!!
