“ I wish i had fresher memories of Jim but most of mine are from long ago. I was flower girl at their wedding and I still have the pinky ring they gave me for my small part in their celebration. To me Jim and Theresa were always young or maybe middle aged but never old. What a long life he had and he'll be dearly missed for sure. My thoughts are with my family at this time and only wish I were closer. We lost a lovely man for sure. May he be reunited with Theresa.

“ So happy we were able to celebrate his 90th birthday with his friends a few hours before his passing into a new life. He has been our close friend along with his loving wife Theresa for many years. We will always cherish the memories of the many wonderful times we shared with them, his son Dexter (Chris) , his wife Robin and granddaughter Fiona whom he loved dearly! Bun and Jim have been best of friends since the late 1940's and will be missed by Bun and myself. Now, Jim, you and Theresa are joined together in your heavenly home. RIP Jim!! We will miss you!!

“ Oh Jim, I am so sorry I was not there with you during your final moments in life. I will miss you dearly, as over the last years you became a part of my family. I know as nurses, they say never get attached to your patients/residents. How can you not, if there is compassion and love in your heart, and it is given back to you on a daily basis. I will miss you Jim, and always remember you in my heart..... Tina Trudell
