Joan volunteered for breakfast club and was Queen of the Red Hats. She never missed a Blue Jays game and attended as many of her grandchildren's sporting events as she could. She loved to travel and to play cards daily with her son-in-law David. Over the years Joan worked at Waltec (Brass), Eaton Yale, Oxford and finished her years of work at Lapointe Fisher Nursing Home (1996). She moved to Calgary in 2008 to live with her

“ You were resilient, strong, and feisty. I will always remember your cheering from the stands at our hockey games. Watching game shows myself wil never be the same. You were very loved. I wouldn't trade the time I spent with you last year with your broken hip. I will miss you. Cheers to you in the stands in the sky. Hope your watching a jays game!!

“ I have known Joan for years and used to chum around with her son Bill years ago. I delivered TV guides to Joan and her husband Bill Sr. on Tiger Alley when I was a kid.

Joan was always very nice to me especially at Christmas time and in cold weather.

Many times she would give me a tip on collection days. Joan was very thoughtful and caring.

I will never forget that or Joan.

My sincere condolences to Bill & Family
Sincerely. Mike McNaughton
