“ Life is but a Poker Game
By LeeAnn & Peggy

We all start out with the same beginnings. We sit at the table and are dealt the cards. Some turn out to be awesome hands and some you fold before you take your first draw. Joe lived his life as a poker game. Sometimes he played aggressively and sometimes he sat back and contemplated his next move.

Over all, Joe was presented many different hands to play during his life bringing him much joy and pleasure landing him a royal flush in two beautiful sons, Joey and Devon. Joe loved his boys and would have been lost without them.

Whatever kind of player you are sooner or later you draw a card that just doesn't fit in your hand and you need to draw a new one. Joe recognized this throughout his life and didn't take anything too seriously. He liked to have fun; he carried his ego in a wheel burrow, never letting it get in his way where his friends were concerned, no matter how intimidating they thought he was!

Joe spent his life celebrating with his friends, whether a ride in the hot rod even if it didn't leave the garage shooting at the bad guys. Or did leave the garage and driving along with his favorite Aunt in a parade minding his own business, waving to a buddy and bamm runs into the guy ahead of him. All your fault Raymond!

With the good comes the bad and Joe knew that, but when you are as awesome as he was - his opinion of course, good has to be right around the corner. So he never let the bad cause him too much concern. Joe has many good friends and family he leaves behind but know he's probably taking a few coins off of St. Peter at the pearly gates waiting for the rest to show up for the weekly game!

Until we see you again brother, father, friend, son, cousin, and nephew know when to fold 'em and keep the seat warm for those following for their chance at the pot at the end of the game. Even though it feels like the chips are down because you are gone, you will be missed and we will carry on with the game in your memory!

Peace out, Joe!

I worked with joe for a short period of time recently yet he had an impact with his humor and smile in those few weeks. I understand your grief as my childhood friend and father to my son passed away unexpectedly November 2009. Matthew was only 61/2. It is a very difficult road that you are on and I extend my heartfelt sympathy to you. I would like to suggest the resources Sarnia has to help. Matthew attended the Kids Circle program at the Hospice in Sarnia and grief counselling through the VON. They were both wonderful a wonderful support during that difficult time. “ Joe,

I was shocked to hear of your passing. You were truly my superman, you had me really believing you would live forever.. you touche my life & the lives of my children in such a way I will never forget. You are a very excepting individual! You were a straight shooter, and honest and caring man....my life will not be the same without you in it....but knowing you made it better! You will never be forgotten my friend,....until we meet again!~ Laura

“ In a song by Aaliyah-Miss You DMX says exactly how I feel...."I have trouble accepting the fact that your gone so I won't, it will be like we went for awhile without seeing each other, but I can understand why God would have wanted you"....you will forever hold a special place in my heart. We had some great times together and I will hold on to those memories and cherish them. You will be dearly missed by all who knew you

“ You are the first guy I ever found in the cosmetics department...and working those relines with you was so much fun - sometimes too much fun and too loud I am sure! I truly enjoyed your company in the car..thanks for ensuring I kept between the yellow lines while buckeled over laughing. "road"! But above all it wasn't just your humor & your easy going manner that warmed me to you, it was the day Joe Jr. came to see you at work and you made sure to give him a kiss before he left. As a mom of a young son who lost his dad, that natural gesture melted my heart. May you rest in peace and may your sons find comfort in their memories.

“ No words can express the sadness I feel at your sudden departure. You and I shared alot of good times and alot of laughs in the last 5 years. No matter how many times we lost contact, we always managed to find eachother again. You were always someone I could count on to make me smile with your sarcastic sense of humor and life loving attitude. You left a big impression in my life, and I will forever remember you. Cheers, until we cross paths again. Much Love and Respect, my friend. - Alyssa

“ Joe, I only knew you for a short while, but you touched my heart. The hours spent riding around in the car and working side by side were great! We had a lot of laughs and some heart-to-heart talks. I will never forget your smile when I coined your newest nickname.....Jazzzzzz. My regret is that we never made it to the Chief and I didn't get to see you down a Large Marge :) Thanks for the memories Joe! You are going to be missed by so many of us! I pray for your children and family who are left behind. May they find comfort and hold onto their precious memories of you. -- Carolyn
