“ Uncle John was a dear relative and very kind man. He loved his family and lived a good life, one of caring for those around him. He was a man of great faith and leaves behind so many good memories. I am so sorry for the loss that Aunt Cecelia and all of John's children and grand-children are feeling at this time. We will all miss him. Some people leave the world a better place because they were in it, and John Mel was that kind of person.

“ Dear Cecilia, Cathy, Chris and Brenda, and all the family-I am so very sorry for your loss. Almost a year ago, John came to my house to give my husband John - Communion because he was too sick to get to mass. And now they are both gone from our lives BUT never from our hearts. God bless you all at this sad time.
