“ So very sorry Ted to read this shocking news. I had the pleasure of meeting and working with John at St. Clair Technologies. He was such a kind, smart and funny guy to be around. “ It’s sad to hear of Johns passing. I knew John back when he lived with his parents and his siblings Herb, Sally, & Tom, on Gillard street. We lived right across the street. I was best friends with Tommy and we were both enthralled to watch John solve some complicated algebraic equation on the blackboard in their kitchen. John was attending a university in Michigan at the time. I’ll never forget the night John’s laboratory blew up, located over his Dads (J.L.) garage. Burnt it all down that night. John might be the last of he family to pass. I know Tom is gone. Not sure about Sally. Sincere condolences to all who knew him.

“ Sorry to hear of his passing ,Ted. I remember the fifties when John and I were building rockets until the RCMP paid us a visit and had us stop at least for awhile! Had to switch to other explosive devices. One day he almost burned down the family garage. I miss those days.
