“ From Margo Jenkins I lost this once so lets try again. John to me is like Santa Claus is to Christmas, A warm familiar smiling face always with a pleasant remark always positive about now and the future. Whenever there was a town celebration you would see John and his lovely wife Sherry selling their candy floss and assorted chocolate bars, At the parades and many activities John was always their with his wagon full of delicious goodies always with a smile and pleasant conversation. John once rented a home across from my Dad Jack Jenkins on what was then the old Gordon St later on changed to Jeanne St. Dad and him spent many an hour talking and John was always their to help out my Dad whether my father thought he needed it or not because you see John was that type of person always reliable and always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone who needed it. John saved my Dad;s life. I don;t know if John ever mentioned it or not for he was humble and shy. in his own way but I received a call from my Dads neighbours (Karen Ingram and Earl Thilbert) about my Dad (Jack) lying on the roof of the house and they could not rouse him. Living in Windsor I immediately started to travel to Wallaeburg making calls all the way. I called brother. Bob and Chris (working) John and Sherry leaving messages and more family including 911. They told me when I arrived that John came around the corner carrying a ladder placed it against the house and he was walking my Dad down the ladder when I arrived. Everyone followed after John. My Dad being elderly with a mind of his own and a diabetic well lets just say thank God for John. Just a simple thank you was all John wanted and him and Dad talked many more times about that incident many years ago. Thank you to all that helped especially John My family will always be in debt. God Bless you and yours,
MJ

Sherry and families so hard to believe that a great man such as John was called home way too soon. We all know he only takes the best he must have some big plans for him up there. Keep in your heart and in your thoughts and will never far from you .

So the picture of the 2 hockey sticks is fitting where we will always compete with a red and a blue stick. I missed you on Saturday when we were suppose to have a couple of drinks together, so i had 2 one for you and one for me. I will miss seeing you in the window when I park in your driveway going to the arena. RIP my friend.*

Hey John I wanted to send a picture of the Maple Leafs, but I know how much you would hate it being a Red Wing fan, so I thought the hockey sticks would fit having a red and a blue stick. I missed you on Saturday when you were suppose to come over for a couple drinks, so I had 2 one for me and one for you.
