“ I had the pleasure to know Joe and his family as a youngster when I grew up at 3 McNaughton Ave. and walked past his house every day on my way to school at D.A. Gordon. I also had the honour to serve with him on Wallaceburg Town Council. Joe was a very decent and honourable person and was a strong Wallaceburg supporter both on and outside of Council. Michelle and I along with the entire Wallaceburg community extend our sincere sympathies to the family of Joe Taylor - his kindness and sincerity will be missed.
