

Justine Lindsay

February 22, 2021

Justine Lindsay, a lifetime resident of Wallaceburg, passed away peacefully on February 22, 2021, at the age of 89. Justine was the loving mother of Alan (Julie) Lindsay and Carol (Larry) VanRuymbeke. She was the cherished grandmother of Kari (Steve) Marin, Kristy Lindsay, Tara (Greg) Stapleton, and Tanya (Greg) Marcolin. She was known as 'GG' to her great grandchildren: Carter, Sierra, Morgan, Kyla, Hudson, Leevi, Blake and Tyler. Justine was the daughter, of the late, Leon and Urbonnie Waekens. She was predeceased by her sister Denise (Mike) Trella and brothers Andrew, Frank (Rosemary) and Camiel (Mary) Waekens. Justine will always be remembered as an independent, strong and caring woman. She loved spending quality time with her family and friends, enjoyed reading, dancing, shopping, the occasional slot machine and travel throughout her lifetime.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the HAYCOCK-CAVANAGH FUNERAL HOME, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg. A private graveside service will be held at Riverview Cemetery, in Wallaceburg, at a later date. If desired, donations to the Canadian Cancer Society or the Lung Health Foundation may be left at the funeral home by calling 519.627.3231. Condolences and remembrances may be shared on Justine's tribute page at www.cavanaghfuneralhome.ca

“ So sorry to hear about "Chris" our condolences to the whole family. Got to know her when we moved in across the street. She was the first one to welcome us to the neighborhood. She was a women who spoke her mind so we got to know her quickly. We shared our faith with one another and she definately had a deep faith. Rest in peace with your Lord, Chris. I will miss your "spirit". Sue and Michael

“ Carol and Alan:
Your mom, "Chris", as we called her, was an awesome neighbour many years ago. She was kind and always had a positive word to say. She always made me laugh and was good to my children, who were quite young at the time that we lived beside her. So sorry for your loss. Liz Oliveira

I have many memories of your Mom. I remember well the bingo fever days when our Moms were regular players. Both of them would look for lucky 4 leaf clovers in the grass. For good luck at bingo. Also her love for chocolate. She said she had ate a whole box of chocolates, one day during a snow storm. Every time she walked by she would grab a chocolate. She always stayed slender too, for having a sweet tooth.
