“ I remember when our dad brought this young man (high school age) home and said to us “this is Ken and he is your new brother”. Just like that we had a new brother. We welcomed and loved Kook ever since. He will be missed especially by our mom. Kook always stopped in for a visit as well as Carlette and the kids. We will miss him. He was looking forward to seeing mom in her new house and having a cup of tea with her. Sorry he didn’t make it. Say “hi” to dad for us and we will meet again some day. 🙏

Thank you for being the greatest dad a girl could have. I love you Dad, so much, and will be forever grateful and hold onto the memories we share, the love you gave, the words of encouragement and always being there when a daughter needed her Dad.
