“ Goodbye to Dad

I would like to thank everyone for coming to help celebrate my Dad's life. I didn't get the chance to see him as much as I would have liked, but my Dad and I talked often. Most of the time I called it 'Dad tag' cause as most of you would know just how hard it was to get a hold of him.

My Dad was a kind, gentle man. I think most of you would know, you never had to ask, he would be there. No matter how little he had, he would help you out.

Although my Dad had lots of struggles in life, he loved us the best way he knew. Even though that meant being away from us.

And like a true Dad, he once said to me that if anyone gave us a hard time, he lived a good life and he would take care of it. I talked to my Dad a few weeks ago and we had a good long talk for Easter. He told me some stuff about people that I may remember.

One person has stayed in my head, a friend of his. I told him I remember a man we called uncle Snake. Bald head, a bike and a snake tattoo. This surprised my Dad but also made him happy. He told me they were still good friends, he didn't tell me if I remembered right or if he still had his bike.

We also talked about the passing of his friend's son Tony McGee who had passed away so young. This really bugged him.

We talked about my family coming to see him. This we had planned to do this summer.

I now want to tell a little about us kids. Ken & Janet were married about 12 years. They had 3 kids and moved to Alberta in 1987, separating shortly after moving there. In 1988 my Dad moved back to Ontario.

He is survived by his ex-wife Janet Dingman who just recently found out she had cancer. She is sorry she couldn't make it but sends her deepest sympathy.

Starting with the youngest Albert. He lives in Brooks and has two kids, Elizabeth 6 with ex-wife Bjornda and a son William 9 months. Cassandra just got engaged to Steve Lovoic of Red Deer. They have two girls Steve, daughter Hanna 7 and Aillana Rose 14 months.

Myself, his daughter Jodi and husband of 16 years Bjorn. We have 6. Our son Lucas 15 predeceased my dad in July of 1996. My daughter Nicole 14, Creed 11, Ashton 10, Caden 5, Kirsten 4 and a grandpa to 10.

Cassie and Albert were unable to make it but they send their love and appreciation for all of you who came to say goodbye.

And now I would love to share the thing I will remember most about my dad – his amazing smiling and laugh. The one thing that will and has always stayed with me.

Thank you.
