“ This video is so special.but so painful. I do think of ya a lot Kev.but I also think a lot about why?like why we never seen the signs. Or why you were in the pain you were in.as a brother.its my responsibility to know these things.so I'm so sorry for failing you.we drifted apart over the years of turning into men.and starting our own families.so I didn't really know what was going on in your life.except when we would catch up on Christmases or birthdays.but I will never forget growing up.we had some good times.i remember the first time ya smoked weed.me you and John winstone. Lol.things like that are mine forever.and all the crazy ramps we would build.and try.lol.theres so much to mention.but we will laugh together again about AL the dumb shot we did.and the other fun stuff.your funeral was huge brother.i wish ya knew just how many people loved you.maybe we'd have ya today.miss ya brother.love Brian Fields

I know that we will meet again when my journey in this life moves in the next.Until then you will always be in my heart,love you always and God bless.*

“ I am not a friend of Kevin's and I never met him, but heard of great things from his friends. I feel compelled to write my thoughts & feelings here to celebrate a life lost too soon, a father, a spouse, a son & friend. Life is so short & beautiful. I hope for you the family & friends of Kevin you will remember him in all his glory, not for the way in which he departed your lives. I am also a survivor...too many times to mention. I have learned much & only wish to share my means of coping & moving forward. You will NEVER forget & so you shouldn't. Kevin has a smile that lights up a room...as many loved ones do that leave us too soon! I wish for all of you family & friends to treasure the memories, the love & the smile...it will bring you through times of sorrow when you can't bare to move, get up or even live! Love with no abandon & live like tomorrow doesn't exist! Treasure all that you had with Kevin and remember, He is gone, but NEVER forgotten!!! Love, Someone who cares & has lost also!!! God bless...xoxox

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to Kevin’s family and friends. I met Kevin at the Niagara Plant a few years ago. His humor, smile, positive nature and energy were magnetic. He consistently worked very hard at OPG and in the gym. He was very proud of his kids and recently very excited about the excellent time they shared at The Americana Water Park. It was always great to see him in the gym, he was very motivational and brought me great happiness. I’m deeply saddened by his passing and wish that to some extent I impacted his life as much as he has impacted mine. I’m fortunate to have such a great friend, he will always be missed. I had the pleasure of working with Kevin at Lambton GS. He was fun and so genuine and kind. When he talked with you, you knew he was IN the conversation. You would always leave it feeling better than before - and smiling - smiling, because HIS smile was infectious. What a great guy. In reading all these tributes and messages on here, I'm left with this thought - I just wish he could see them to know so many people care; to see how highly he was thought of, and to see how he touched so many people in his far-too-short lifetime. I wish you peace buddy, and thanks for the words.

“ All of my heart reaches to each one of the family members. Families branch in every direction...plz let empathy flow to the most distant root far and wide. For whatever reason unknown to us Kevin's life on earth has ended. But...my heavenly father promises golden crowns and gems beyond belief when our earthly walk is over. So Kevin I have some comfort knowing whereyou are. You have left everyone with various memories, big and small. Mark, and Ashton thought you and billy were the best babysitters on earth way back when. And, that smile of yours...'gosh, ...it could light up the darkest night. You may be gone...but you will never be forgotten Kevin. Give all the others hugs and kisses for me,...until we all meet again.

“ My first memory of you was you and Billy comparing who was more tan :) You won! I'm going to miss those times where you always picked on me but I'm sure Clarence will carry that on... He's been doing a great job at it all these years. I miss you and like your dad always said "It's never good-bye, but see you later." Love you Uncle Kev!
