“ To: Uncle Mike, and Aunt Terese, all siblings, children, grand children, and mother of children, and daughter, and son in-laws.

I knew Larry over the many years, actually, from when he was born. I didn't have much contact through the years; but the time we did have contact, it was very meaningful. I knew Larry in the best of times. Larry was always strong, respectful, and loving, with a sense of humour like his Dad. A unique blend of humour, that was funny, but never insulting to anyone. He was a perfect cousin; someone You could catch up with, when You saw him, and always with another story to share. Gone too soon. Rest In Peace, Larry. You were loved by many. Thinking of all the loved ones, during this time, and through the Christmas season, and beyond.

Cousin Bernard.

“ It was a pleasure to teach Larry at WDSS. He was always respectful to both Don and me. After graduation we had wonderful conversations about his life. He adored his children and cared about being a good dad. Wish he could have stayed longer so our paths could have crossed a few more times.
