“ Our sympathy to Lila's family and close friends. I knew Lila and her husband, Lee when they lived on the farm years ago back in the 1950's. They were close neighbours of the Ozias Caron family. Bun said he rode on the ferry boat to the U.S.A. with Lee, when Lee worked in the states and Bun went to Barber School in Detroit. Our prayers go out to all of you!! Rest in Peace, Lila!! She will be missed by many!!

“ Dear Darlene, Heather and Don, and all the family, I am so very sorry for the loss of your wonderful Mom, Grandma and Great-Grandma. She was a kind and fun loving woman who always took the time to say hello and chat awhile. My Mom and Lila used to have the same kind of car-the colour was the same -everything. They used to get mixed up at church sometimes and try to get in each others car. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.
