

Lindsay Sword

December 27, 2012

Lindsay Edmund Luther Sword, a resident of Walpole Island, passed away peacefully at the Public General Campus in Chatham on Thursday, December 27, 2012 at the age of 70. Lindsay is the son of the late Wilbur and Alberta (Warner) Sword. Beloved husband of Veronica Ruby (Huff). Dear brother of Terry Sword and Arnold Warner. Lindsay was a former employee of Navistar and Motor Wheel in Chatham, an elder at Walpole Island United Church and founding member of the 803 Sharp Group. The family will receive relatives and friends at the HAYCOCK-CAVANAGH FUNERAL HOME, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg from 7-9 PM on Saturday. The funeral will be celebrated at Walpole Island United Church on Sunday, December 30 at 1 PM. Interment to follow at Highbanks Cemetery. “ I met Lindsay about four years ago through my friend Roger. Shortly thereafter I met his other half, Veronica. I always felt such a young and good love surrounded their lives. They changed one another too by their love of each other. Veronica is being changed again now and I pray her faith, hope, love, gratitude, family and friends replenish her heart through each hour, day, week and times to come. We love you.

“ *Hello Veronica. I am so sorry to hear about Lindsay. I know he hasn't been well for awhile. Veronica, you are surely in my prayers. You know the Good Lord will give you the strength to carry on at this difficult time. We must get together sometime for our tea. Well, my dear loving sister, keep the faith as God will guide you through this Valley. With all my condolences to you. With Love and Prayers:
Rolland*
