

Lisa Taylor

March 17, 2020

Lisa Joyce Taylor, a member of Walpole Island First Nation, went home to be with her Lord and Saviour on Tuesday, March 17, 2020 in Sarnia at the age of 52. Lisa is the beloved daughter of Helena (nee Gilbert) and the late Lennox Taylor. Loved sister of Mark, Edwin (Barb) Darrel (Sarah), Lennie Jr. (Susan), Michael, Cheryl (Aaron), Debra (Bob), Karen and Tricia. She will be missed by her many nieces, nephews, friends and co-workers at the Walpole Island First Nation Band Office. A private family visiting and funeral will be held with interment in Highbanks Cemetery, Walpole Island. A public celebration of Lisa's life will be announced at a later date. HAYCOCK-CAVANAGH FUNERAL HOME, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg entrusted with arrangements 519.627.3231. Online tributes may be left at www.CavanaghFuneralHome.ca

“ Lisa was kind. She loved children. She had nicknames for them like Pretty Girl. She would make google eyes and coo. She collected cows and gave one to me once. I still have it. She was a good person.

“ Rest in Peace Lisa. Lisa is my sons Godmother, we are truly and deeply grateful to had her in our life. I've admired and loved her for her kindness and care she showed me. I asked her to be my first born sons Godmother because of her devotion to the Lord. I felt she was a great woman. She continued to be a rolemodel to Oakis. The last conversation was at the BCC Christmas sale, her and her sister were dressed as cheery elves. Grandson blew her a kiss. I will always cherish my memories with her. My condolences and prayers for the families and friends of Lisa.

“ Lisa was a very great friend of mine, when we both lived in London, it was Friday and we were coming home, this was before debit cards, we were hungry, we always drove by a Burger King on Wharnclyff Rd. it was advertised 2 can dine for $4.99, we thought wow, lets stop' so I pulled up at the drive through, counted our change, got our food. Yahoo' when we started on our journey back to the Island, We got pop, French fries and 1 cheese burger' go figure, We still laugh about our Burger King Deal' Yep I will Miss My friend Lisa, she was always so grateful for every thing.

“ I met Lisa 5 years ago when we were both fighting Cancer, all I can say about her was she was the most Positive and Spiritual person I have ever met..She was always so upbeat about what was going on, and she was so okay with what ever came her way. Lisa was a very Special Lady, anyone who had the privledge of meeting her, was truely better for it..Rest in Peace my friend, you will be missed. But the Lord needed his Angel back home...Jan

“ Lisa was a valued beautiful person to our huge family ... On my Gramma Julia's b-day we'd all get together at my Aunty Monnie's as families did back then ... I always remember Lisa there bcos my Dad would call her name in a deep voice ... Lisa had a deep strong voice then n always has kept her strong voice that im going really miss that voice saying my name when we'd see 1 another ... Now I know her strong voice is singing with the angels pain-free ... I could hear my Dad saying Lisa in that deep voice as he seen coming through the gates of heaven ... Love u Lisa n gonna miss u seeing u 😞😞😞 but so happy for ur graduation ...

“ Lisa was such a beautiful person with a rare and obvious love of God. She was dedicated to the Lord and to her family. Whenever she spoke about her family she had such great pride for their accomplishments, like they all won the Nobel Peace Prize and it was her honour to be part of their blessings. Lisa was a blessing too and did many remarkable things and she was a very humble soul for all the work she did. She was a wonderful lady and was loved by many and will be missed by all. The Bkejwanong Cancer Support Group will be remembering your good work. Baa maa pii Lisa

“ Lisa was a very good friend who always had a big smile to share whenever you met her. She was very dedicated to her job and whatever task she was assigned to. Some time ago she was in Oklahoma attending a gospel camp meeting. We were travelling to meet her there. In Tulsa, I decided to call the house where we were going to be meeting at and Lisa answered the phone and somewhat confused me when she answered " Hello Walpole Island Band Office". I said What? We had a big laugh over that. Now that's dedication. In the hospital I reminded her of that moment and we had another big laughed. There are so many beautiful moments that her friends can share about her loving and kind heart. Lisa was always there when she was needed and would do what she could to help out in any way. She was very resourceful. Lisa fought a long hard battle with her health and remained strong and positive through it all. She has completed everything she was meant to do on this earth. Now she can rest from the cares of this life below and rejoice in heaven with her dad Lennox and family and friends that went on before her. Lisa will be deeply missed by all those she has touched but will never be forgotten. RIP our good friend Lisa. Till we meet again (Baamaabii)

“ Lisa was always full of life. She was full of mischief and laughter throughout her life. Although her life was short, she still lived a full life. I considered her a dear friend and sister (in the Lord). In the last years of her life, she fought valiantly to remain in this present life. She even continued working until she could not longer do so. Her faith in the Lord gave her strength and a willingness to continue living. Our families mended together in the love of God through parents (Lennox & Helena and Dan & Bessie). We (church family at Church On The Rock, Piikani Nation, Alberta) stood with her, believing the Lord Jesus to take away sickness. It was not to be. Sadly we must release her into the eternal care of our Lord Jesus. She now sees the Lord as He is. She joins a company of family (Taylor's and Gilbert's) in the presence of the Lord. "To be absent from the body...present with the Lord." - Paul, the apostle. "When my eyes shall close in death...and behold Thee on Thy throne..."
