“ Joan and Dale so sorry to hear about Duke. I remember when I was younger being at your house and Duke stopping by. I noticed that he worked at Vannatter's so I mentioned his name to Dave as he also worked there. His first response was that Duke was a great guy which seems to be everyone's thought. Our thoughts are with you and the family at this sad time.

“ We cross paths with many people in our lives but only a few touch our hearts and memories forever. Duke was a true friend. I just want to share one deep rooted tail.

I remember the night before the Demolition Derby, a bunch of us decide before the high school dance we would take the Plymouth out for a spin at Gord Henry's farm. We had previously stripped the car of it's windows and chrome for the next day event so romping through the field was bad enough until we came across a pile of rotten tomatoes. All I can say those suits will never be the same. I'm sure you can all guess who was driving at the time.

I Love you Duke and my heart will ache until we meet again

“ We were truly honoured and privileged to be friends of Duke. He was the kind of man, husband, dad and friend that we would all like to be. Words fail to adequately express our admiration for the courageous way he selflessly fought the disease that took him from us, while all the while being more concerned about his family and friends. His sense of humour and his positive attitude in the face of unbearable pain revealed a character and bravery that we admire greatly. He loved his family, he enjoyed his friends and he taught us all what kind of person we should aspire to be. Thank you, Duke, for being you, and enriching our lives. Someday, we'll enjoy a cold one, and a hearty laugh together again. With love to Pat, Scott, Kelly and families... John and Diana Mathany

“ *My Memories of "Duke" - I never worked with or socialized with Duke or his family (much) but Duke came out to Sunday morning hockey in Dresden with the Wallaceburg Gang and we immediately hit it off! I knew Duke was all about his family. Duke wasn't one of those guys that took off his skates and ran out the door. We would sit back and have a pint and talk about what we did last week and possibly have another and talk about what we were going to do this week. That's what I'm (we'll) really going to miss about Duke!

“ I wanted to share the thoughts.... no, words that come to mind when I think of you, see a photo of you or when family talks of you.

When I think of my life so far, I think of the many people with whom I have crossed paths. You and Pat are one of those couples who has played a big role in my married life. As a couple you are such an inspiration.

When I married Greg and became a part of this very large family, I recall meeting you for the first time and you made me laugh, relax and feel at home. You were always a favourite in-law and will forever hold a special place in my heart.

You supported me in my journey of faith in 2006 and I am so very honoured to have shared in yours, just this year. I have grown to love the two of you and am blessed to share you as family.

I love that smirky smile and deep, hearty laugh you shared so easily. It was never fake and sometimes I don't know if you laughed with me or at me, but I loved it all the same. You had a special way with people, a real gift.

These are my words for you:

Positive, with a capital P

Passionate about your wife and family, Crazy about your grandchildren

Detailed, Genuine, Just

Trustworthy, Dependable, Good as your word

Easy going

Enthusiastic and High- spirited

Stable, Steady, Solid... Constant
