He used to come in to the Sombra restaurant at Judy & Charlie's every day and was liked by everyone. Such a nice man.

It's sad when a voice so well associated with our village goes silent. The history of the ferry service which really was "Sombra" is left for us to each remember in our own way. When you said "Lowell", it referred to only one person; there was no need to explain. On encountering Lowell in the community he always had a cheerful greeting. and time for a little conversation. He provided employment for many locals (including my sons), and was always prepared to step up with a sponsorship or a donation to a local cause. Thank you from all the beneficiaries. The book closes for Lowell and our community....we will remember him.

To the entire Dalgety family, my sincere condolences.

“ Oh the many memories from Sombra Customs. Many meals shared as we all worked holidays, flowers enjoyed in the beautiful flowerbeds, Flags to repair, stories to share and pizzas from jets, new ducklings each year. Such beautiful ladies you had for wives . Each with their own charm and each so in love with you. You raised fine children and beloved grandchildren. When Sombra tragically closed we all mourned. When the ferry left for the last time I went to quietly watch and shed a tear for what was. As time stole you .a bit at a time we were all sad. Now my friend you are at rest with your Lord. Your family has all the good you instilled in them. Rest in Peace old friend Sharon LaPier
