

Lyle Stratton

April 12, 2014

Lyle Maurice "Stratty" Stratton, a life long resident of Wallaceburg, passed away peacefully, surrounded by the love of his family at the Public General Campus in Chatham on Saturday, April 12, 2014, at the age of 84. Lyle was the son of the late Hilton & Verna (Cox) Stratton. He was the beloved husband of Elsie (Matej) for 56 years. He was the loving father of Brent Stratton (Wendy), Leslie Johnson (Edward) and Dan Stratton (Jane). He was the dear "Grandpa" of Matthew, Alanna, Natalie, Luke and Jack. He was the brother of Wayne Stratton and Lois Myers (Glen). He was predeceased by his brothers Arthur (Vera), Darrel and Don. He is also survived by sisters-in-law, Joan and Catherine and many nieces and nephews. His early work life included being employed at Dominion Glass and operating his business, "House of Stereo". He later worked for Sears as a television technician. Lyle was a member of First Baptist Church. He enjoyed singing in the choir and the quartet. After retirement, he enjoyed working on odd jobs with his friends there. Stratty loved music. He played the trumpet in the Wallaceburg Kiltie Band and the Bob Jacks Band. After he retired, he began piano lessons. Stratty enjoyed spending summers with his family at the trailer at Ipperwash Beach, globe-trotting, playing golf, and curling. The family will receive relatives and friends at the HAYCOCK-CAVANAGH FUNERAL HOME, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg from 2-4 & 7-9 PM on Monday. The funeral will be celebrated at the funeral home on Tuesday, April 15 at 11 AM. Cremation with burial in Riverview Cemetery at a later date. If desired, remembrances to the

“ Its now October 2021, Glen Myers passed away not too long ago. Reading his obituary, not knowing all these years that you're all related. I remember Elsie's smiling face at church. I enjoyed looking at all the family pictures.

“ My deepest heartfelt condolences to Elsie & all of her family. Although it's been many years since we've been close, I can say with confidence that Lyle was a man who lived life to the fullest. He provided a shining beacon to one and all (myself included) on how to live one's earthly pilgrimage. I see that light reflected in his children. To Lyle I wish restful repose safe in the knowledge of a job exceptionally done! May he make the Lord smile with the same joy he brought us here. For those he leaves behind, the pride & joy of the many years with a truly decent man.

“ The Stratton home was always a warm inviting home for us. Lyle's smile and sense of humour were a big part of building that atmosphere. Always welcoming and inviting, even after all night euchre games with Dan, Mark and Scott, Lyle would greet with us a smile and a gentle reminder that there was a full day to go and live.

He will be very missed. I wish I could be there today to join in the celebration of his life but with great regret I cannot attend. I will however spend my day going over my memories spent at the Stratton home.

With Love,

Jeff

“ They say the measure of a man can be found in his ability to influence others to be like him. Stratty had a remarkable influence on a lot of people, but none more so than me. I would be hard-pressed to find someone who I admired more and who wanted to be like more.

Stratty was a man who carried himself with a quiet kind of grace and elegance. He possessed an uncannily quick wit. He was ever-ready with a quip or zinger and seemingly had them at the ready before the unsuspecting, (me) even spoke. I will miss those.

His love for Elsie was total - and their marriage one that every married couple would do well to emulate. I know that Donna and I sure have. All one had to do was look at them look at each other.

We shared an appreciation and a love for big band music - Glen Miller, Benny Goodman, the Dorsie brothers, Artie Shaw, Count Basie and of course the crooners and the torch singers, Frank, Tony, Dean, Mel and Doris, Lena, Rosemary, Dinah and Jo. The difference between us was that Stratty had talent and I didn't. And how I would have loved to have heard him when he played in the Bob Jacks Orchestra at the old Primrose.

He loved the Lord, loved his church and was exceptionally blessed by the Spirit with the gifts of hospitality, helps and generosity. And in those three, no others are so important to leading an exemplary Christian life - one to be modeled by others.

In our church there were three men who stood as giants and who have now been promoted to glory - Walt Anderson, Mac Harris and now Stratty. All three quiet men who were possessed of extraordinary inner strength, character and loyalty. How I miss them.

To my friend Stratty - let me say how much we admired a life well lived - a reward well-earned and a joyous eternity in the arms of our Saviour so well deserved. And when you read this - no zingers!

Til we meet again brother.
