

Lynn Blackwell

May 17, 2021

UPDATE: An informal gathering of fellowship and refreshment to remember Lynn will be held at the Riverport Restaurant, 542 James Street in Wallaceburg, on Friday, September 17, 2021 at 1:30 PM. Everyone is welcome and invited.

Lynn Blackwell (nee Jenkins), a resident of Wallaceburg, passed away peacefully at Fairfield Park on Monday, May 17, 2021 at the age of 76. Lynn was born in Wrexham, North Wales to Gwilym & Glenys Jenkins. Cherished wife of Frank Blackwell and Loving mother to Mark Prydden (Janet), Sharon Houle (Ken), Nicola Demers (Steve), Ian Blackwell (Debbie) and the late John. Dear grandma of Emily (Brett), Ashley, Taylor (Jordan), Jessica, Sarah, Michael (Alice), Joshua, Arron and great grandma of Katie, Leonie, Niyah, Allen, Ryver and Rylee. Sister of Gaynor, Jillian, Andrew, Neville, Karl and the late Kevin. She will be missed by many friends and family in Wales. A thank you to the team at Fairfield Park, especially the PSW's on Blue Wing for your assistance and care. Arrangements have been entrusted to the HAYCOCK-CAVANAGH FUNERAL HOME, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg. If desired, remembrances to the Alzheimer Society may be left at the funeral home 519.627.3231. Online tributes may be left at www.CavanaghFuneralHome.ca “ thoughts and prayers to Frank and family.

Peace at last.
Lynn was a Lady that loved to. Laugh and tease and wanted everyone around her
to have a good time.
We have missed her sense of humour.

She will be waiting to tease us all again.

“ lynn and frank were friends of my grandparents. and i was always friends with steve and nikki as i met them years ago when they moved to port lambton. and hung out with mutual friends. lynn and frank would frequent my grandparents place for a stiff whiskey or a drink
i used to love listening to lynns stories of being in whales as well as her feisty witty personality. one of the funniest ladys i knew. rest easy lynny.
