“ Lynn was a wonderful, kind cousin. When I was about 5 or so he would take me for a ride in his souped up gocart. Or to the candy factory in the old school. Always a smile on his face, he was like a young James dean to me, and I always would want to head to Aunt Dorothy and Uncle Arling’s home to see if he was home. Many good times at Grandma Johnson’s cottage in Port Glasgow as well.

Very sorry to here this sad news. Scott Shepherd and family.

“ Sue, Tammy, Kevin and family, I am so sorry to hear of Lynn's health struggles and his passing. I hope that the many years of happy memories will help to ease your pain. I remember Lynn as a an easy-going man and always quick to give a nice smile. He was an awesome Papa to Tyler and Taryn and absolutely loved Mia! I enjoyed spending many Christmas Eves with Sue and Lynn at Tammy's house, where it was quite common for Lynn to dose off while sitting on the couch, but still grace us with his presence with his snoring. May he rest in peace.

*Sending love your way,
