“ Grew up with Arlene, Alan and Annette. Our families visited back and forth for many years. We would have a lot of fun together always, that was a given. Madeliene and George and my parents, Mary and Bernard Burm, could always be heard laughing and carrying on and listening to polka music and playing cards, while us kids would be up to no good behind the scenes.
Madeliene and George were very faithful people who loved the Lord and their church community. Madeliene really loved and honoured Our Blessed Mother Mary. George's laugh is awesome - you can't help but laugh when he laughs.
Love you all. Take care of each other. Our prayers and thoughts are with you. Bev
