

Madge Yax

April 21, 2017

Madge Marie Yax of Kelowna, British Columbia and formerly of Wallaceburg, Ontario, died peacefully in Kelowna on April 21, 2017. Madge has gone home to join her predeceased family; daughter Brenda and parents Hugh and Cecile White. Beloved wife of fifty eight years to Wheeler. Madge is also survived by her sons John, Rodney (Tammy) and Devan (Nina) and mother-in-law to three families. Dear Nanny to Kolby, Shawn, Justin, Blondelle, Brittney, Brandace, Koral and Kefton and Great-Nanny of Ella, Rowen, Payton and Parker. Sister of Jack White. Madge will be missed by her sisters –in-law, nieces, nephews, and numerous family and friends. Cremation has taken place. A graveside service will be celebrated by Fr. Chris Gillespie at Riverview Cemetery in Wallaceburg on Wednesday, May 10, 2017 at 11 AM. Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to the HAYCOCK-CAVANAGH FUNERAL HOME, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg. If desired, remembrances to Our Lady Help of Christians Parish may be left at the funeral home 519.627.3231. Online tributes may be left at www.CavanaghFuneralHome.ca

“ 🕊️🦋🌺🌈🌹🌺 In Loving Memory Of Our Wonderful Nanny In Heaven On Mother's Day. We wish there were visiting hours in heaven. (Love the people God gave you because he will need them back one day) We must learn to trust God's timing. We know he wanted you home for your Mother's Day with Brenda and Nanny.
Enjoy your beautiful day. We now know when feathers appear Angels are near. We miss you-We love you. Nanny sent us another gift today....We named her Charolette. The neighbors pig came by for a visit. 🐷 We know you love your pigs. Well she was so happy to see the kids and play in our back yard. The kids were like Nanny's pig is here!!!They all ran through the house to Rods bedroom door and out they went. They hugged her and fed her a banana. It was a special moment for us all. Seeing we have never had a visit from our little neighbor before. Nanny sent her!!!- the kids all said. It was another beautiful 'Classic Madge Moment.' Thank you. 'WHEN PIGS FLY' - Nanny's does!!! 🐷She came today straight from heaven. XO THE ARK XO ❤️🚢 Thinking of you this Mother's Day

“ Well mom this is your last lesson for me, I will miss you giving me direction in life. This is where faith comes to play, something that you and I talked a lot about, this is where nothing physical matters now and we all go home to our families. I will be with you again, you were and always will be in my thoughts everyday. Our kids will remember nanny, and what you stood for. I see you smiling and laughing in my memory , you always excepted what I choose , but always told me what I did not want to hear.... I will miss that. We have very strong kids that you played role in, we are very close family driven by strong values, them lessons were given by my parents. I try to ration where I go from here, and think what you would say. This last bit was tuff, but you made it easier for me mom when its my time, I am not scared as I was before.....you always led the way first! Love you mom. Mama I am not going to say good bye too you today cause your still with me but rather say..... SEE YOU LATER

“ God had a plan and we didn't even know it. April 3rd Beachcombing on the shorelines of Oyama, British Columbia with Sir Rodney, Amster Angus and Duiven Deldor we find three gifts. Not far from where we started Duiven is standing guard on his command post sandbar. I walk over to see what he is doing. The first of three beautiful white feathers. 🕊 Resting below him. The walk continues. Not far from the first feather he stops once again. To my amazement there is another. 🕊 Loading up our boys we find a third white feather 🕊 Resting by the car door waiting to be found. 🌹 The significance of those three feathers. We have lost three of our Earth Angels in a short time. I know Breda Pretty, Duiven Deldor and Our Ark were there for Nanny when she arrived. Those three significant White Angel Feathers. Who would have ever known. I certainly do now. Now we have Mother's Day arriving. Well it surely won't be the same. But it is comforting to know you have arrived home for Mother's Day to be with Brenda Jayne. We found your little Koral colored snail you sent for Wheeler. Straight from heaven. We named her Classic Madge. I won't say goodbye. Keep sending Feathers and snails 🐌 I know you're close by. You will see our sails coming into port again one day. We can catch up on your new fabulous sewing projects, your delicious baking and cake of course. We will walk your favorite walking trails. 🚤 A ship in port is safe-but that's not what ships are built for - sail out to sea and do new things. Seas the days. Catch the winds. Explore. Dream Big. 🇺🇸 You are a Captain. 🚢 You have Strength with Unity by your side. You have Moms Brigade. The Strength of Your Family Brigade was created by the Strength of your family unit you worked so hard for. It required the support and encouragement you always gave your entire family. You did a fabulous Job!! Get Sailing. 🚤. Take the long way home. Love Jota (Joan Of The Ark) and The Ark xo. (Tammy and Family)

“ Perfect Timing 🕊️🕊️🕊️ I found a little sign today just resting on the ground, the feathers that you sent to us when you knew we'd be around. I know you're always helping sending guidance from above and giving reassurance that we're surrounded with your love ❤️ So we really want to thank you for confirming that you're there, at just the time we needed that little extra bit of care !!!!! 🕊️🕊️🕊️🕊️🕊️. “ My sincere condolences to you all, Madge's life will forever be honored and cherished in my heart.
i will always remember Madge's passion. love and zest for life and her family!
FAMILY was EVERYTHING to her..
Madge never slowed down and was never lost for words on a great conversation.
She was INCREDIBLY talented in her sewing and quilting and i am very fortunate to have items made specifically for me.
There is a poem that I have LOVED for the past 20 years that I would like to share for Madge <3

The Dash

*I read of a man who stood to speak
at the funeral of a friend.
He referred to the dates on the tombstone
from the beginning...to the end.*

*He noted that first came the date of birth
and spoke the following date with tears,
but he said what mattered most of all
was the dash between those years.*

*For that dash represents all the time
that they spent alive on earth.
And now only those who loved them
know what that little line is worth.*

*For it matters not, how much we own,
the cars...the house...the cash.
What matters is how we live and love
and how we spend our dash.*

*So, think about this long and hard.
Are there things you'd like to change?*

*For you never know how much time is left
that can still be rearranged.*

*If we could just slow down enough
to consider what's true and real
and always try to understand the way other people feel.*

*And be less quick to anger
and show appreciation more
and love the people in our lives
like we've never loved before.*

*If we treat each other with respect
and more often wear a smile,
remembering that this special dash
might only last a little while.*

*So, when your eulogy is being read,
with your life's actions to rehash...
would you be proud of the things they say
about how you spent YOUR dash?*

*Rest In Peace Madge
Love Always Audreen*

“ Uncle Wheeler, my heart hurts for you ~ even as a young woman I recognized that Aunt Madge was your Soul Mate and Best Friend “two peas in a pod”. I remember Aunt Madge as a woman who carried gratitude in her heart and a smile on her face...always able to look at the bright side and offer encouraging words if and when you needed them...John, Rodney, Devan, I have such fond memories of your Mom, and I know there are no words to take away the pain of your loss. She loved you boys with all her heart, she was your stalwart supporter, her love and her pride when sharing news about you and your families over the years were in her every word...My Prayers are for ALL of you to find comfort and Peace at this time and in the coming months....Love Irene (Elmer, Amanda & Lyle)

“ Our most sincere condolences to you and your family, Wheeler, at the passing of Madge; your life-long wife and best friend, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. We will miss our conversations and emails with Madge when we got to reminisce about our FAMILYS. Madge was never one who was at a loss for words when you got her talking about her family. We are most thankful for the time spent with Madge and Wheeler on their return visits to Wallaceburg. The memories we all have of Madge will last a life time and longer as we share them with our future generations.

“ Wheeler, Johnny, Rodney, Devan, family and friends. Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your wife, mom, grandma and special friend. I have many wonderful memories of the times that Madge & I spent together. Our sons Johnny & Hughie were just 4 months apart. We shared so many great times together with our boys. (Yes, some competition too, haha, she would remember that). She was a very caring Aunt Madge and even came to Florida to visit Hughie in 1986. Her Mom Nanny White was the best grandma ever to those boys too. May God give you the peace and strength that only He can give. A very special lady will be remembered by all.

“ Our family lived a few houses away from the Yacks family on Water St. in Wallaceburg. They had three little boys and we were a family of three little girls. I ended up buying the Yacks' home in '94 and lived there for 21 years. Always tugs at the heart to hear someone from the old neighbourhood passed. My thoughts are with your family. ❤️

“ Aunt Madge loved "Real Conversations" and loved sharing ideas and getting down to the heart of lives problems. Madge cared about what was going in your life and she wanted to help you by sharing her experiences in hopes that it may make things easier for you to navigate our world. Her phrase "yay know what I Mean?" will always be with me. She preferred optimism and had a smile that lit up a room. Her family was her everything and for all of my cousins, their families and my Uncle Wheeler I extend my love and prayers for your loss. Remember her lessons and stay close. You were well Loved

“ Uncle Wheeler, John, Rod and Tammy, Devan and Nina: Dale and I and our family would like you to know that we share in your loss. Aunt Madge was a vibrant and caring woman. She was quick to laugh, always interested in your life and often had some positive spin on things for you to think about. She had the mind of an artist, she was always creating/sewing/painting/planning and making her house a comfortable home! I am glad I was able to say good bye to her. She will be missed.
