I remember Peggy from our much younger days. I think we started to figure skate about the same time and later on we both worked in the office at the hospital. She was indeed one of the best. Rest in Peace Peggy.

“ Pegg and I go back a long ways. Bert and I were coworkers years ago and I was an apprentice under Bert at Dauw Motors.. Bert and I became good friends and that is where I met Peggy. She was always friendly and up beat.

Years later when I changed jobs with a new career as a police officer I would drop by the hospital during quiet times and reminisce and have coffee with Pegg.

Then in later years I would see Pegg walking all over town. We would once again talk about old times. She was always the same ole Pegg friendly and nice.

*I am truly surprised to see and hear of her passing.
I am sure Pegg is with my ole buddy Bert in a better place right now.*

My sincere condolences to her family

Sincerely. Mike McNaughton
