I woke up early this morning to realize that I missed a inputting a remembrance of you on the anniversary of your passing, now 6 years ago. Now just another day on the calendar but still think of you and the love you displayed to your family. You and mom are now united together in glory. I am so sad that she passed...still cannot believe that she is now gone too. It is hard to think of her without sadness and heartache. So many people recalled the love that you had for each other and what a blessing you both were to many.

The house is now being sold and we have to move on. Going through the stuff that is in the house has brought back a lot of childhood memories. While we want to keep as much as possible, reality is we cannot.

Justin got married as well last year. Both Kurt and Justin have married beautiful woman and you would be so proud of them

I am so thankful that you did not have to be here during covid.

I see you in the work ethic that you instilled in your children and grandchildren. You would be so proud. Lauren, finally will be starting her career after Covid interrupted it. You have blessed your children and grandchildren so much that the blessings will continue for generations to come. Dad I miss you and will never forget you. Until we meet again. Love you❤️❤️

“Dad, 10 Years goes by so fast...its hard to believe you have been gone so long....So much has changed since you left us. Children, Grandchildren and now great grandchildren... We have now gone back 3 times to visit the place of your birth..you would be so proud that we are still keeping the family bonds together, even across the ocean. in the past year, 2 additional great grandchildren have been added to the Fuoco family. Finally 2 great granddaughters....mom would have been soooo excited!!! When we were recently in Italy, we were sharing with family how proud our parents would be that we are still continuing with the family relations. Love you and miss you more than words can say. As time goes on for myself, it allows me time to really ponder eternity and ensure that we are all ready to enter. It is my hope and prayer that all of our family will be able to be reunited some day for ever. Love you and miss you dad!!!

“ 9 years gone. Seems like a life time. Onward we go!!! 2 more great grandchildren added to the tree. Walker and Blake. You would be so proud of your grandchildren!! Kurt's Denture practice is doing well, Justin is doing well with the construction company he works for and Lauren loves her role as a HIS in Tecumseh. I think she wants to come home because she is missing her nephews and now baby Blake...she is adorable!! Your memory still comes up when I have conversations with cousins as they say you always made them feel special when you visited. You would be so proud as we are carrying on your legacy. My fig trees are doing well!!! Love you and miss you. Until we meet again!!! 🤔💋

“ 8 years gone. Still think of you everyday!!! You gave up so much so your family could have everything!! Words cannot express my gratitude. Things are still moving on. Lauren moved away for her job. While sad that she is not near us, I know life might always take us to places we do not expect. Watson and Noah have started walking and talking...it's fun seeing them grow. There will soon be another Fuoco on earth with Justin and Meghan expecting another child in April. Will be cool if it is on April 11!!! Miss you!! The world is in turmoil right now and seems to be pointing to biblical prophecy coming true. Can't wait to see you in your glorified body with mom. I think of one of the verses in Amazing Grace..when we've been there 10000 years, bright shining as the sun....seems like a long time but in the eyes of eternity just a drop in the bucket...looking forward to that day!! Love you Dad and miss you much!!!

“ *7 years gone by....seems like a life time. Wish you were here!!!❤️
❤️ You became a great grandfather, with the births of Watson and Noah. They so much look like their parents and definitely a Fuoco!!!
When I am visiting Wallaceburg people still tell me how much they miss my parents. They were such nice people. We were so blessed to have you both and thankful that all of your children and grandchildren are following in your footsteps with the hard work ethic that you instilled in each of us!!! Thank you dad! Miss you so much. Love you and until we meet again. For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only son, that whosoever believes in Him will not perish but have everlasting life. John 3:16. I believe because of that one verse, I will see you and mom again. I so look forward to that reunion some day. 🙏🙏*

“ 5 years gone....seems like yesterday...but time moves on. Today was an emotional day, not sure why, but felt really sad that you are gone. So much has happened in the last year...Kurt is married, Justin is getting married, joining Paige and Nike who were married last year. Dad you would be sooo proud of your grandchildren...they are all doing so well and have made great choices in life. Kurt's Denture Practice is going well, Justin's work ethic is just like yours....hard worker, always on time and goes above and beyond. Justin bought a new home and sold us his old. Lauren has finished her schooling, however COVID19, a global pandemic is preventing her from completing her clinical hours but certain that they will be done soon....again you would be so proud. Every time I look in the mirror, I see you...people who knew you remind me how much I look like my father. Love you and miss you.....till we meet again!!!

“ Another year has come and gone. 4 years seems like a long time but it is not. Your family is now united with Zio Guido's recent passing. Time for the next generation!! We are moving to a new home, Kurt recently bought a new condo and Lauren is almost done school. You would have been so proud of what your family has become. We are still keeping the Fuoco name clean. I miss you all the time, especially when I see your face come across the computer screen saver. Love you and miss you much dad!! Until we meet again!!

“ 3 years since you have left us. While the tears are now gone when we think of you, it does not lessen the sadness of your departure. I ran for Council this year, yes I lost but in thinking about one of my biggest regrets, it was not having you here to cheer me on. I know you would have been so proud as a father. As time goes on I know it will be that much sooner in which I will see you again in your glorified body. You suffered so much while on this earth but I know that you are truly resting in peace. I love you dad and will see you again!!!

“ Another year has come and gone. Still think of you often. While the tears are now fewer as the time goes by it does not minimize the impact of your loss. As I look in the mirror I often see you. I am my father's son. I will continue to instill the values that you taught me into your grandchildren so that your legacy will continue for generations to come if the Lord should tarry. Love you and miss you!!
