You have been our closest neighbor to the N.W. for 11 years, and regrettably we had never met Marlene. We have heard many good things about her though, and we understand the kids just loved her. Regrettably we were also unaware of her illness, or that she had passed away until hearing of the school bus tribute on the radio.

“ *To Marlene's Family
I am new to Bus Driving this year
I don't think we ever met and am very sad that we didn't!
I was a part of the convoy of Buses
That honored Marlene on Nov.11,2020
I can't tell you how honored I felt to be a part of the convoy
She was obviously very well-liked and respected!
My heart broke to see her very loving family on the porch
At her home but you are all her legacy and she would be very proud,
Of you all taking the time to honor her!
You are all in my thoughts and prayers she will live on all of our memories!*

“ *Marlene will now be driving the bus for the great angels in heaven’s Sporting events which I know they will be entertained. Her loving hosting Personna will be greatly missed by many but to now be Enjoyed by heavens Important hosts. In Her rock/Jesus was, and must have been a Magnificent blessing to my gifted cousin Wilf and they’re gifted children, Leanne, Tonya, Kyle, and Justin. And They’re Grandchildren. She loves hockey, and I remember she couldn’t believe A kid from our small town of Grosse pointe who had actually been my brothers star pitcher in baseball was supposed to go number one in the NHL draft but lost out to Vincent Lecavalier. Instead went number two to the Nashville predators and had a long successful career. When I talked to her six months ago, she was of the art of most happiness and positive outlook on life. God has now attained another great sweet soul/person to be part of the greater world that we all must go to if we are so lucky as she is. Look forward to seeing you again soon Amen to you Marlene. Also, my condolences to my aunt lipodene, my cousins Willy, Eric and their families, Peter, Rita and their families, Anna Marie and Jim hazard and their families. “ Marlene was such a beautiful person inside and out. I loved talking with her and sharing our love for the Lord. She trusted totally in Him and so we know that she is beyond joyful with her Lord and Saviour. Our hearts are so heavy for you Wilf and your family. She will be greatly missed and our prayer is that you will feel God's loving arms holding you during this very difficult time. May His peace surround you. Eno & Rita
