“ Hi Mom,
We came to visit you today for Mothers Day.
Left some Flowers. We Didn't stay very long as it was Very cold and windy.
Today is also Lauras first Mothers Day! What a very special time.

I love you and miss you everyday.

Your daughter,

~Amy~

“ Hi Mom,
It's so hard to believe that it has been a whole year since you left us. We have learned to live again. It's not easy. Each day still hurts just as much as the very first day we lost you. A lot has happened this past year, but you are still watching over all of us
I know that for sure.
Love always and forever

“ Hey Mary Jane, I know this seems random but, I am having so many memories today of growing up with you and the rest of our siblings and, well, I just miss you. I still don't know exactly how I am supposed to feel. I've been reading some of the messages here; Sista, you left alot of holes in alot of hearts they day you were called home. I hope you know how much you meant to us, and still mean to us. Instead of one empty chair @ our traditional Boxing Day dinner, there are two empty chairs, Mom's, and yours. You might not be there physically, but we feel your presence alongside Moms. And now, you have your brother-in-law with you, taken too soon as well; leaving another gaping hole in Barry's heart (and the Jinkerson family as a whole). That's all; just wish you were here Sista, I miss you! <3

It has been a month Big Sister and a day hasn't gone by I haven't thought what you would be doing if you were still here with us..maybe a needlepoint to welcome someone into the family ...a ceramic created from your heart...bookwork for someone ...computer problems or just spending time with your granddaughter...We hold Barry in our hearts and we pray for him during this difficult time as he holds onto another family member that will get his wings while he grieves losing youIt is a promise we will all meet again someday and until then we love you and miss you...Give Mom and Aunt Cathy a big hug too

“ A month has gone by Big Sister..and I can only have peace knowing you are in Heaven and you are not alone there... You have Mom, Aunt Cathy, Grandma,,and a bounty of the most Beautiful Angels you ever saw...I think of you all the time and wonder what you would be doing if you were still here with us...your lastest needlepoint to welcome someone into the family,,a treasured gift of a ceramic piece you poured your heart and soul into....figuring out someones computer problems...spending time with your granddaughter....or dining out with Barry...We hold him in our hearts right now as he lets go of another...his little brother...We know you will be there to welcome him into Heaven...We miss you so much Big Sister and we love you... You are one of the brightest stars in heaven and you shine down on your family...may that light shine forever.

“ I can't believe it's already been 1 month since you left us. Life sure has changed. Dad and I talk just about every day. W all miss you like crazy. Natalie says she see you all the time in the stars and moon. Thank you for sending some of your angel feathers down, Natalie collects them all. She says that you play with Linus all day and night. Praying for dad. Please say a prayer for him. First you, then his youngest brother (fingers crossed) and just yesterday a good friend of his from kinsmen. Ohh the heartache. I come see you as often as I can. Say hi to Grandma Shepley, aunt Cathy and Linus. Love you, talk to you soon. Love always, your daughter.

Barry & family it is with great sadness that I have just heard the news of Mary's passing . You are in our thoughts as I am sorry we had missed the service .Many many years of serving you both in Fiesta and sharing your grandchildren's pictures. She will be missed dearly .God Bless you and your family as you hold her memory close to your hearts .

“ Dear Mary Jane, my little big sister, it's been a week since we lost you so so suddenly. I still don't know how I am supposed to feel. I see our childhoods flash before me and I remember you as the "authority" when mom and dad would go out (which wasn't often) or when they were busy with the canning and farming. You were our popcorn maker and rationer of equal shares from the popcorn bowl, you were a disciplinarian when necessary (and sometimes not so necessary, lol) I remember teaching you to cross stitch that first time while in hospital from your gallbladder surgery. Wow, how that turned out! If your fingers could have flown thru some of your projects, you could have had a career selling them. And then there was the warrior in you. The battles you fought and won specifically in the past 7 years. I'm just in awe of the sheer determination you showed when cancer so irreversably changed your life, but (blessedly) didn't take you from us. Then the major heart surgery you underwent, then the kidney surgery.....and you still managed to put a smile on your face and trudge on. And some of the conversations we had about your beloved Angels and Jesus; I have no doubt as to where you are Sista! And the love you had for Natalie!!!! There was no doubt she was the apple of your eye. She was a lucky little girl. I miss you my little big sista. I know you're having a grand reunion with Mom; I can almost picture it. I know in God's time, we will all be reunited, so until then, rest easy Sista, I love you.
