“ Bill and Fred...I am so sorry for your loss of a wonderful Mother. I had the good fortune of having both of your parents as my teacher...a good teacher will shape your whole life and you never forget them . I met your Mother on my first day of high school and it was her first day of teaching...I'm sure we were both nervous. Your parents taught us not just school lessons but life lessons as well... they influenced so many of us and it is a great loss but certainly their influence will live on for so many of us. We had so much respect for both of them and they were such a credit to their profession.
