

Maurice 'Moe' DeVylde

May 7, 2026

With peaceful but heavy hearts we announce that Maurice 'Moe' DeVylde passed away on Thursday, May 7, 2026 at the age of 79.

Born in Zelzute, Belgium in 1946, Maurice emigrated to Canada in 1950 when he was just 4 years old. He will be forever remembered as a beloved husband for 48 years to Maryanne, a loving father to his daughters Melissa and Monica (Tony), and a cherished grandfather to Neo.

Maurice loved his dogs, hockey, baseball, golfing with the boys, wood carving, and spending time sitting on his patio.

Cremation arrangements have been entrusted to the Haycock-Cavanagh Funeral Home, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg (519-627-3231). If you wish to make a donation in his memory, please consider CKHA Foundation (Palliative Care Program). Cherished stories and tributes may be left for the family at www.CavanaghFuneralHome.ca

“ Oh Maryanne, Melissa and Monica! How shocked we were to read of Moe’s passing. I’m not sure you all realize how dear Moe was to Randy and I. We were honoured to have him stand up in our wedding, and regardless where life took us, picked up right where we left off. May you find peace and comfort in the wonderful memories that you have, the love and joy that you shared together. Forever in our hearts, Randy and Jan ❤️

“Maryann and family. I'm so very sorry to hear of Moe's passing. From the original Splash Pool Company on Nelson St, to your beautiful yard, woodwork and your home. Moe had the personal touch. He enjoyed that and worked yard. I admired your home each time I passed. Saying to myself " Oh just look at what Moe done now, wow!". I know you enjoyed time spent together creating your haven and surroundings. Cherish all the fond memories as they will live in your hearts forever . Synthia Trembley
