“ To Mary, Louie, Robert, and Rosie: On behalf of the LePage family, please accept our deepest condolences. Your parents were very special people and I remember them well and remember them fondly. Though we most certainly did not speak the same language - we always got a chuckle out of our communications (me trying to speak Spanish and them speaking Italian). With a lot of laughter and a profound understanding of the love we shared for your family - we got along well. Big hugs coming your way from Barrie. Hugs and prayers for courage as you all walk this new path.

“ You are home now with your beloved, Michael! To Louie, Rosie, Robert and Mary...in the short time that I had the privilege to get to know your father, he epitomized the true meaning of family values...and like the brave soldier he once was...served the world for almost a century with honour, integrity, loyalty and above all LOVE. God bless you all.
