“ What can I ever say to convey how much my Aunt Nancy meant to me! She was the kindest, sweetest aunt anyone has ever had. She was always so kind and giving to me! As a little girl I always wanted to go home with her because she was my most favorite person in all the world to spend my time with! Oh the fun times we had together! She made me feel so very special and loved! I think she spent most of her hard earned money as a waitress in Martins Dairy Bar, on me! Day after day I would come in after school and she would say "what would you like today sweetheart?" I, (thinking everything came free if you worked in a dairy bar,) would have chocolate milkshakes or an ice cream sunday pretty well everyday! Oh , how I wish I could have seen her one last time to tell her how much I loved her! I came home from vacation early to do just that, however I was too late! But I know one day soon I will see my precious Aunt Nancy again-in heaven. I know because we share the same Saviour-Jesus Christ who died for our sins. Until that day, you will live on in my heart and memories!

“ Nancy was always smiling. You could look to the back of Faith Baptist Church, right in front of the sound booth, and she was there, smiling and encouraging. She will be greatly missed by her friends at Faith.
