“ Mr. Clow was the Principal of DA Gordon public school when I knew him and moved to Wallaceburg in 1985. He was a kind hearted man and was very welcoming to me and my family when we moved to his school. I have pleasant memories of him at Track and field meets cheering us Gators on to victory. Bless you Mr. Clow and your family.

“ *Margaret Anne,
My sympathy to you and the family at this time. It has been along time since I last saw you, but I have such good memories of our days together on 2 West at old St. Joseph's. May your faith give you comfort and strength at this time, and in the days ahead. Sincerely,
Shirley Clark*
