“ Dear Pat, and children, Dan, Paul, Mary and Mark,
Ron and I send our deepest condolences to you during this difficult time. We were both very impressed by Nora, her warmth and compassion. We just learned today of her passing and regret that we could not attend services to personally express our thoughts, but we are away from home at this time.

I spent many years working with "Mrs. D", and watched her as she demonstrated how to be a caring, competent team player and leader. She served as a mentor to me for 15 years...a great example of a superior nurse. The many, many comments from others shows how she was held in such esteem by all those who knew her.

Thinking of Nora, I cannot help but also think of you, Pat, and the loving relationship that you two experienced. How you enjoyed the "crik" travelling past your back yard, helping build things that supported Nora's various interest, such as quilting. How proud of Dan, Paul, Mary and Mark, you both were.

“ It was that one hug of encouragement that Mrs. Dunlop gave me as the Director of Nursing that inspires me to be as compassionate and loving RN as she was. That was almost 30 years ago. Thank you for sharing your wife and mother. She was truly a beautiful woman :)

“ On behalf, of your friend Lenore Cracknell, my wife Esterlita and myself Lewis, we stand beside you in this time of sadness and sorrow. I can say this much on behalf of my self, Lewis, I met you but once in life and that was back in November or December of 2012, when we bought Lenore to the retired nurses dinner, there in Wallaceburg and it was my pleasure to have met this lovely lady. Little did we know, that God had further plans for you. May he hold all who knew you in his loving arms and minister to their hearts. Thank you for serving your Country and Province and all it's citizens. Sometimes we don't give enough credit to our Nurses, Rest in Peace our friend.
