Norma Jean Shimizu (Bishop), a lifetime resident of Wallaceburg, peacefully passed away, surrounded by her family on Saturday, November 26, 2016, at the CKHA, Sydenham Campus, at the age of 84. Beloved wife of the late Yon Shimizu (July 2016). Loving mother and mother-in-law of Susan & Cameron Green. Cherished grandmother of Caitlin (Erik) and James (Monica). For Susan and her family...I never knew your parents Susan, but they raised a very kind-hearted daughter so I believe they were wonderful people. My deepest sympathies to you on the loss of your parents this year. You and your family are in my thoughts. (in case you don't remember me - think WDSS band!) Take care.

“ My condolences to you Susan and your family. I remember coming to your parents home when I was very young because they had the first coloured TV in town. Our fathers go as far back as the Brass factory. I have fond memories of both your parents when coming into Jackson's Pharmacy especially when your Dad was mailing his books. They were both very involved in the community and they will be missed. Again my condolences.

“ Susan and family: You were just a teenager the last time I saw you Susan, and from the pictures posted you've grown into a beautiful woman and have an equally beautiful family. I am so very sorry to hear about Norma's passing. She and Yon have always been and treated me kindly and with love. She gave me the warmest hug imaginable the last time I saw her which was a year or so ago. My sincerest condolences to all of you.
