“ The Tulloch family have been good friends and neighbours for years.

I can still see Lois and Norm (both of them taking over the combine) as Gordie was taking crop to the mill. I often mention to Edie how nice it was to see both of them thrashing the crop at their ages. They are and always will be a team.

We will miss seeing Norm and Lois with their ear protection on riding the two John Deer ride lawnmowers cutting grass. I think Norm got to use the new JD Mower when it arrived as it had more bells and toys on it. Norm would get depressed when he could not get out cutting grass. The new JD lawnmower sure helped,. Lois, we hope to see you out cutting grass this summer. I am sure Norm will be at your side..

I used to tease Normy when he got his pride and joy upon buying his Cadillac. It was all in good fun and Norm was a real trooper about it...

The Tullochs are the salt of the earth . They would do anything for you, Never had better neighbours.

Our sincere condolences to you Lois, Gordie , Janet and families.

Norm is gone but will never never be forgotten.

Sincerely Edie and Mike...
