“ Olga was a great Lady. I used to bring her over meals from time to time from my Grandmother Margerate Ann Clow, and would stay and chat. She was so giving and always offered me a drink and wanted to send me home with a bag of chips or chocolate bar.

“ Many good memories of birthday's celebrated with Olga. She never let anyone leave her home without giving you something to take back with you - very generous, kind and loving woman. Her home was always open to friends and she was always trying to feed you. Her cabbgage rolls and perogies were enjoyed by many priests and friends. She will be sorely missed by both of us.

“ I recall the first day I arrived at Our Lady Help of Christians in 1983 and went for a walk. As I walked past Olga's home she came out on her veranda and with a kobalsa in her hand asked me if I was the new priest, after which she stuck out her hand and offered me a bite of the kobalsa. I thought there was nothing to do but accept her offer, or it would be all around town in no time about the new priest. That was the beginning of a friendship that I can to cherish. I hold found memories of Olga and will keep her and the family in my thoughts and prayers at this time. (Rev) Marc Doucet
