“ Each Christmas, Pat made sure that every bag lady received a crocheted token of appreciation for their work throughout the year. It must've taken her hours to create these thoughtful gifts. We will miss you Pat. RIP

“ Pat will be greatly missed at our Bag Ladies group. She was a very talented lady and once she got an idea she let her fingers get to work and created masterpieces! She taught me to crochet a king sized blanket, even though she told me I wasn't advanced enough to do it and told her all crocheting was hard for me at this point so what is the difference. I don't know how many times I went over to her house during this project and she was always eager to help. It was just her personality! She always had zingers in our little group of crocheters and always made us laugh. She will be missed and my heart is sad that we won't see her again. Peace my friend!
