“ Grew up across the road from Paul ...played hockey in our back yard rink and any frozen creek or pond we could find. Walked to school daily to D.A.Gordon together. High School football too. Saw him weekly over the last five/six years. Will miss our conversations. RIP my lifetime friend!

“ Thinking of you Charlie, Melissa and girls. Paul was so proud of you all. I have many fond memories of Brander Ave, Pt Lambton and even London. Oh, those wonderful Wallaceburg Little Theatre years in the 70s. Paul and Alex were a dynamic duo and always the very best hosts. I miss your Mom to this day. Your Dad and I comiserated through tough times in 2008 and I have always been grateful for his friendship. Maybe down the road we can all be together to celebrate his life and share a hug!
